

CML-HSP Follow-up Study

This research study is about the heat shock protein 70 (Hsp70) vaccines used to treat patients with chronic myelogenous leukemia (CML). The purpose of this research study is to see if Hsp70 vaccine to CML patients as part of a previous clinical trial has long-term clinical effect.

Posted 1/26/2009