

DOES SERIOUS MENTAL ILLNESS OR ALCOHOL ADDICTION RUN IN YOUR FAMILY?

Do you or someone you know have bipolar disorder, bipolar disorder with alcoholism, or schizophrenia?

Donate a few tubes of blood to the UConn Behavioral Gene Bank.

- WHO: People with bipolar disorder, bipolar disorder with alcoholism, schizophrenia
People with those disorders who also have suspected or known chromosomal abnormalities
- WHAT: Donate a few tubes of blood and share your personal and family history with researchers
- WHERE: GCRC (General Clinical Research Unit), UConn Health Center, 263 Farmington Avenue, Farmington, CT 06030
- GOAL: To find genes causing mental illness, which may lead to new treatments in the future

Participation in this research is FREE and VOLUNTARY.

For more info, contact Kathleen at (860) 679-2633 or kcurley@uchc.edu
IRB#07-131-1, Dr. Drazinic

University of Connecticut Health Center